2006 COLORADO FOOTBALL: GAME 1 — MONTANA STATE

Saturday, September 2 in Boulder (1:30 p.m. MDT; no live television)

RELEASE NUMBER 1 (August 28, 2006)

QUICKLY SPEAKING...

The Colorado Buffaloes (7-6, 5-3 Big 12—North Division champions in 2005) open their 117th season of intercollegiate football this Saturday, September 2, hosting the I-AA Montana State Bobcats (7-4 in '05) in a 1:30 p.m. kickoff at Folsom Field... It also marks the first game of the Dan Hawkins era at Colorado, as he was named the program's 23rd head coach last December 16... The game will not be televised; however, CUBuffs.com will partner with FoxSports.com to provide a webcast of the game via BuffVision (details pending at press time; go to CUBuffs.com for more information)... The Buffs and Bobcats last played in 1927 when both were members of the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference, but the schools aren't strangers, as both are members of the RMISA (Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate Ski Association); more on the series on page 7 of these notes... Through 2005, CU had been one of nine schools to have not played a team from outside Division I-A, but both the Buffs and California drop from that list this September... Colorado enters 2006 with a 650-402-36 all-time record (a .614 winning percentage), as the Buffaloes rank 15th all-time in the NCAA in wins and 22nd in winning percentage... Colorado is 73-38-5 in season openers, having won three straight... Bobby Anderson will become CU's fourth inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame this December with the formal ceremony next summer... The Qwest Rocky Mountain Showdown presented by Dr Pepper is next up for the Buffaloes, as CU will take on long-time rival Colorado State at INVESCO Field at Mile High in Denver on Saturday, September 9... CSTV will broadcast the game nationally with Tom Hart (play-by-play) and Trev Alberts (analyst) behind the mikes. CU's website, www.CUBuffs.com features game day updates and live stats for all games. IN THE POLLS

Colorado was not ranked in the Associated Press (media) or USA Today Coaches preseason polls (the Buffs received one point in the coaches' ballot); CU was not in the final 2005 rankings. Last year, the Buffs peaked at No. 21 in the November 5 coaches' ballot (No. 22 in the AP and Harris Interactive), but dropped out after the loss at Iowa State. CU was ranked three times last season, reaching No. 18 in the BCS Standings at one point (Nov. 6). CU returned to the polls after a 25-month hiatus on October 9, as the Buffaloes were ranked No. 24 in all three, dropped out again after the loss at No. 2 Texas, and then reappeared after the 23-20 win at Kansas State. Dating back to the 1989 preseason, CU has been ranked in 185 of the last 280 polls (AP; 66%), which includes a tremendous run of 143 consecutive between 1989 and 1997 (the 10th longest streak of all-time). CU has been ranked 292 times in its history, the 21st most all-time. Since 1989, CU has played the fourth most ranked teams in the nation (87), trailing Florida (95), Florida State and Michigan (both 91).

STAT OF THE WEEK

Two players right out of the gate can achieve personal accomplishments: PK Mason Crosby needs a single point to become Colorado's all-time leading kick scorer, as he enters his senior year with 231 points—tied with Jeremy Aldrich. TB Hugh Charles needs just 109 rushing yards to reach 1,000 for his career.

OBSCURE NOTE OF THE WEEK

Colorado ended the 2005 season with four straight losses, something that had not occurred in 22 seasons, or since the 1984 team dropped five in a row. It marked just the ninth time in 116 seasons that the Buffaloes ended a year with as many as four consecutive losses: 1890 (four), 1915 (six), 1916 (five), 1932 (four), 1949 (four), 1963 (six), 1968 (four), 1973 (four), 1984 (five) and 2005 (four). The worst stretch was '63-64, when the Buffs lost 10 straight, but the last time, in '85, CU opened with a win over Colorado State and then defeated Oregon to open 2-0, doubling its win total of the previous season.

SEASON OPENERS

Colorado is 73-38-5 in 116 season openers, with a 53-18-1 record in Boulder (36-17 at Folsom Field). CU has won three straight openers (after dropping the previous four), all three thrilling wins over intra-state rival Colorado State. The Buffs have opened a season just three times since 1997 at home, those coming the last two years against the Rams and in 2001 when the Buffs dropped a 24-22 decision to Fresno State in the Jim Thorpe Association Classic. Prior to that defeat and the five openers in Denver against CSU, the Buffs had won eight straight season openers at home and were 10-0-1 between 1988 and 1998. CU is 6-4 in openers since the formation of the Big 12 Conference in 1996.

➔ CU head coach Dan Hawkins is 7-3 in season openers in his career (3-2 at Boise State, 4-1 at Willamette), with both losses while at Boise on the road at ranked Southeastern Conference schools (South Carolina in 2001 and Georgia last year).

MEMORABLE CU OPENERS

Quite often, the first career start, or coming out party, is intertwined with making a season opener a memorable one. Perhaps the biggest example of this in Colorado history came in 1989, when sophomore Darian Hagan made his debut as CU's starting quarterback; he may or may not have won the job, but with senior Sal Aunese stricken with stomach cancer the previous March, Hagan was handed the keys to the CU offense. On the second play of the game, Hagan raced 75 yards on the option to the Texas 2, starting the Buffaloes on their way to a 27-6 win, the first triumph en route to an 11-0 record in the regular season. Hagan rushed for 116 yards and a touchdown, and passed for 95 yards and another score. Other memorable CU openers and/or game one performances include:

1937	Colorado 14, Missouri 6	Erv Cheney scores both CU touchdowns, Byron White boots a still-CU record 83 yard punt, and for the first time in school history, there is a charge for parking on the Boulder campus (15 cents a game).
1953	Colorado 21, Washington 20	The Buffs, a two-touchdown underdog, win in Seattle as Homer Jenkins, in his first collegiate game, did it all in CU's single-wing offense to often fill in for an injured Carroll Hardy. Jenkins threw two TD passes to Gary Knafelc, while Emerson Wilson added 87 yards on the ground and a score.
1965	Colorado 0, Wisconsin 0	The Buffs and Badgers battle to a 0-0 tie in Madison, the third-to-last scoreless tie in Division I-A history as the two combine in "hot and sticky" conditions for just 496 yards of total offense.
1971	Colorado 31, LSU 21	Charlie Davis rushes for 174 yards and two TDs in win at No. 9 LSU, the catapult to a 10-2 season and No. 3 rank.
1977	Colorado 27, Stanford 21	Current assistant head coach Brian Cabral goes nuts as he racks up 25 tackles in CU's win.
1979	Oregon 33, Colorado 19	The Buffs fall in the much ballyhooed first game for new head coach Chuck Fairbanks; it's also the first game televised by a fledgling sports network named ESPN that went on the air one day earlier.
1981	Colorado 45, Texas Tech 27	Walter Stanley hauled down five catches for a CU record 222 (it still stands today), as CU's first game after a 1-10 season in 1980 exorcises some demons. Randy Essington throws for 345 yards in the win.
1989	Colorado 27, Texas 6	In addition to Hagan's effort (see above) the CU defense stifled Texas in limiting the Longhorns to 268 yards.
1990	Colorado 31, Tennessee 31	Mike Pritchard subs for Eric Bieniemy at tailback and rushes for a CU season opener record of 217 yards as the Buffs open what would be their national championship season with a tie against Tennessee in Anaheim in the inaugural Disneyland Pigskin Classic.
1992	Colorado 37, Colorado St. 17	Kordell Stewart takes over from Darian Hagan and passes for 409 and 4 TDs in the win over the Rams.
1995	Colorado 43, Wisconsin 7	The NFL plucked off 10 CU '94 starters in the April draft, but new coach Rick Neuheisel readied the Buffs in fine fashion as CU drilled Wisconsin in Madison. Koy Detmer threw for 267 yards and three TDs as CU built a 26-7 halftime lead.
1998	Colorado 42, Colorado St. 14	Mike Moschetti throws for 257 yards and 3 TDs in his first CU game and the first contest between the two in-state rivals in Denver at the old Mile High Stadium.
2003	Colorado 42, Colorado St. 35	Joel Klatt comes in unsung and exits as the national player-of-the-week as he threw for 402 yards and 4 TDs in a 42-35 thriller over the Rams. CSU pulls even late, but Bobby Purify's 9-yard TD run wins it with :40 left.
2004	Colorado 27, Colorado St. 24	CU led the entire way, but CSU had a chance to steal it at the end; the Rams had a first-and-goal at the CU 1 with just under a minute left, but the Buffalo defense rose to the occasion and stuffed two plays, the last as time ran out, to seal the win. The Rams had fought back from 17-0 and 27-17 deficits.
2005	Colorado 31, Colorado St. 28	Mason Crosby drilled a 47-yard field goal with four seconds left to rally CU to the win. The Buffs trailed 21-10 early in the fourth quarter, having tied the game at 21 on a 48-yard Crosby kick with 2:32 left. CU turned an interception into the go-ahead touchdown, a 23-yard run by Hugh Charles, with 1:30 remaining, but CSU rallied with an 80-yard TD drive to tie the game with 36 ticks to go on the clock. Stephone Robinson returned the kickoff to the 40 and three plays later, the Buffs were in position for Crosby's winning kick, as the teams scored 20 points in just 152 seconds.

MORE ON OPENERS

Colorado has won 20 straight openers when it has scored first (dating back to 1967 when it defeated Baylor 27-7). The last time the Buffs scored first and lost an opener was in 1966, scoring their only points of the game on a field goal before succumbing to Miami, Fla., 24-3. The other 19 openers? CU is 4-14-1 when the opponent has scored first, with the wins coming in 1969 (a 35-14 win over Tulsa after falling behind 7-0), in 1995 (a 48-13 win over NE Louisiana after spotting NLU a 3-0 lead), in 2003 (the 42-35 conquest of CSU after the Rams jumped ahead 7-0) and in 2005 (CSU got the jump late in the first quarter by 7-0).

INAUGURATIONS

Dan Hawkins was named the 23rd head coach in Colorado history last December 16, and he'll be looking to become just the second coach to win his CU opener in the last 76 years. The only one to do so since Herbert Hoover was U.S. President was Rick Neuheisel, who saw his team defeat Wisconsin in Madison, 43-7, in 1995. Both teams have scored 10 or more points in a new CU chief's debut only six times, all since 1959. Overall, Colorado coaches are 9-12-1 in their debut games at the reins of the Buffaloes; here's a closer look:

FIRST PLAYS HAVE BEEN HO-HUM

Here's a look at what transpired on the first play on both offense, defense and special teams for CU head coaches, dating back to 1959 when information is available. Amazingly, CU has never earned a first down offensively and has allowed just one defensively, and including special teams, the three longest plays are kickoff returns of 19, 16 and 13 yards. A closer look:

ROAD TRIPPER EXTRAORDINAIRE

Steve Koreivo of Stanhope, N.J., will be attending next week's CU-CSU game in Denver. "So what?" one might first ask. Koreivo was profiled in Lindy's annual football preview magazine last year, as he had just reached seeing 100 different I-A football teams play at least one game in person. CU officials, noticing that both CU and CSU were on his list of teams he had not yet seen, contacted Koreivo and invited him as their guest to this year's contest; CU and CSU will be the Nos. 108 and 109 teams out of the 119 I-A schools that he will have seen in person (he will be attending the UTEP-San Diego State game this weekend for schools 106 and 107). Anyone interested in contacting him for further details can reach Steve on his cell phone: 862/266-1520.

2006 NEW FACES

Almost all the entire football staff is new due to the head coaching change; those who are back in 2006 from the 2006 staff include long-time linebackers coach Brian Cabral, running backs coach Darian Hagan, the technical assistants, Mike Babcock (offense) and Donnell Leomiti (defense), and the operations director, David Hansburg. Changes since the end of spring included Jeff Pitman replacing Greg Finnegan as strength and conditioning coach, along with Miguel Rueda named as head trainer after Steve Willard left the program to enter private business. Biographies on all the new coaches can be found in the 2006 CU football media guide between pages 38-49.

AND ONE OLD FACE AS WELL

ILB Jashon Sykes (1998-2001) has returned to CU as a part-time administrative assistant in the football office, mainly helping with recruiting. Sykes, who is 10th all-time at Colorado with 330 tackles, played two seasons with the Denver Broncos and had signed with the Washington Redskins late last fall before being cut this May. In a side note, WR Jeremy Bloom had planned on returning this fall for what would have been his senior year, but his well-documented dream of skiing for the U.S. Olympic Team and playing college football was cut short for good in September 2004 with a final NCAA ruling on the subject.

CLOSE CALLS GOING CU'S WAY

Colorado is 11-2 in its last 13 games where the final margin has been seven or fewer points, dating back to the start of 2003. That included two games in 2005, the season opening 31-28 victory over Colorado State and a 23-20 win at Kansas State, both thanks to the foot of PK Mason Crosby. And starting with a 22-19 come-from-behind win at Oklahoma State in 2001, CU is 15-4 in seven point decisions.

SUMMER INJURY UPDATE

The Buffs had a very good camp when it came to injuries, coming through in very good shape. The injury picture as of August 28:

Pos	Player	Injury	Notes	Status/Montana State
DE	Walter Boye-Doe	concussion	suffered in second fall scrimmage (August 18), possible return this week	DAY-TO-DAY
S	Dominique Brooks	knee	suffered against Texas in Big 12 title game: had surgery on January 10	OUT / 1-2 MONTHS
WR	Michael Kachmer	knee	suffered a torn ACL in practices after spring break	OUT / 5-6 MONTHS
WR	Charlie Sherman	ankle	chronic condition caused repetitive sprains, had summer surgery	OUT / INDEFINITE

NOTE: Injuries are reported in conjunction with the HIPAA laws. CU releases player name, body part (but no right or left ID's), the general nature and playing status when it comes to reporting injuries. Status will be listed as either OUT, DOUBTFUL, QUESTIONABLE, DAY-TO-DAY or PROBABLE. Injuries will be updated in-game, post-game, the Sunday after the game, and for game notes at the end of the week.

REUNIONS

Three weekends will serve as reunions for various former CU athletes in 2006:

- September 15-16: the 30-year reunion of CU's 1976 Big Eight champion football team;
- October 6-7: the annual gathering of those alumni who lettered 50 years ago;
- October 12-14: Hall of Fame Weekend, featuring the induction of this year's class (TBA) as well as honoring Bobby Anderson, the fourth CU player to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. The 1966 football seniors will also hold their own 40th class reunion.

ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1936 (Nov. 6) Byron White scores 25 points against Utah in Boulder in a 31-7 CU victory; White scored four touchdowns and kicked a PAT to establish a Buff record.
- 1951 (Nov. 17) Colorado defeats Nebraska, 36-14, in the first-ever television appearance for the Buffaloes (NBC).
- 1956 The 50th anniversary of CU's first bowl champion team, as the '56 Buffaloes were 7-2-1 in the regular season and defeated Clemson 27-21 in the Orange Bowl.
- 1961 Colorado wins its first Big Eight Conference title, going 7-0 in league play and 9-1 overall before losing to LSU in the Orange Bowl (25-7). Along the way, CU posted key wins over Kansas (20-19, after trailing 19-0 early in the fourth quarter), Missouri (7-6) and Nebraska (holding the Cornhuskers to 31 yards of total offense and no first downs).
- 1966 Hale Irwin earns All-Big 8 honors for a second straight year at defensive back and leads CU to a second place finish in the Big 8.
- 1981 The 25th anniversary of the most dramatic comeback in CU history, as the Buffs defeat Oklahoma State 11-10 after trailing 10-3 with a minute left and facing a second-and-14 from its own 4. Steve Vogel connects with Brad Parker for a 9-yard touchdown and then hits Derek Singleton for the 2-point conversion for the win; it was the last time Singleton ever touched the ball, as he fell ill with spinal meningitis the next week and died New Year's Day 1982.
- 1971 Thirty-five years ago, a sophomore-laden CU team opened up with a couple of huge upsets on the road at Louisiana State and Ohio State and went on to finish 10-2 and ranked No. 3 in the nation—the only time one conference has produced the top three schools in a final poll, as Nebraska was ranked No. 1 and Oklahoma No. 2 (the only teams to defeat CU in '71);
- 1976 A 35-28 win at Kansas State creates a three-way tie for the Big 12 title, but CU gets the nod over Oklahoma and Oklahoma State thanks to wins over both; CU goes on to the Orange Bowl where it falls 27-10 to Ohio State.
- 1986 In a game commonly referred to as "The Turning Point," CU's 20-10 win over No. 3 Nebraska has the nation take notice of the rising Buffalo program; the Buffs rebound from an 0-4 start and play for the Big Eight title (losing to Oklahoma), but earn a berth in the Bluebonnet Bowl;
- 1991 CU claims a third straight Big Eight title, though this one is shared with Nebraska as both are 6-0-1 in league play; the 19-19 tie between the two in Boulder on Nov. 2 is the coldest game in CU history (12 degrees, but the wind chill is minus-8).
- 1996 Matt Russell wins the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker, highlighting a 10-2 season in which Koy Detmer became the first (and only) player in school history to pass for over 3,000 yards in a season.
- 2001 CU wins its first Big 12 Conference title, as the Buffs ascend to No. 2 in the final regular season polls but miss out on appearing in the BCS National Championship game by a mere fraction of a point despite ending the year with a 62-36 win over Nebraska and a 39-37 verdict over Texas in the league title game. The Buffs drop a 38-16 decision to No. 3 Oregon in the Fiesta Bowl.

2006 NCAA RULES CHANGES

The NCAA Football Rules Committee approved several changes this past February; here's a list of the most significant:

- Instant Replay. The committee approved one procedure for all institutions and conferences that choose to use instant replay: that is for the replay official in the press box to review all plays on the field and stop the game if a play is on the list of all reviewable plays and has a direct, competitive impact on the game. Each team will also now have one challenge during the game (as the Mountain West has had). If the challenge overturns a call on the field, the coach retains the right to challenge later in the game and is not charged a timeout; if the call is not reversed, the team is charged a timeout and the coach does not have the ability to challenge again in the game. The coach may not challenge a ruling if his team is out of timeouts in either half.
- Game Clock. To help reduce the length of games, the clock will now start when the foot touches the ball on kickoffs and free kicks (instead of when the return man touches the ball). The clock will also now be started on the ready to play signal on a new possession, instead on the snap of the ball, much as it is now when a team earns a first down.
- Kicking Tee. The kicking tee has been reduced from two inches to one inch as a method of reducing the number of touchbacks.
- Halftime. Halftime is a standard 20 minutes, but may be lengthened or now shortened by previous agreement of the visiting team administration.
- Procedural Fouls on Punts & Kickoffs. The receiving team will now have the option of accepting the penalty after the return or forcing the kicking team to kick again five yards from the original line of scrimmage (should eliminate some re-kicks).
- Eye Shields. Only eye shields that are completely clear are now allowed.

THIS-N-THAT

- 300. Colorado comes into the 2006 season with a 177-116-5 all-time record in games played on artificial surfaces, thus the Buffaloes will hit a milestone of sorts this year. CU will play its 299th game on the fake stuff at Missouri on Sept. 30, and then number 300 on Oct. 28 at Kansas.
- 400. Colorado enters 206 with 395 combined wins in the seven different conferences it has lined up to play football in. Thus, five victories would give the Buffaloes 400 all-time wins in conference play, dating back to the Colorado Football Association in the 1890s.
- 1100. The Nov. 24 game at Nebraska will be the 1,100th in school history; the Huskers were also CU's opponent for the school's 100th game in football annals, as CU defeated NU 6-0 back in 1904, deemed one of the school's biggest wins ever at the time.
- Opener Streak To End. The CU-Montana State game on September 2 won't be televised, marking the first time since 1983 that a CU season opener won't be on some kind of local, regional or national television. But the Buffs will bounce back strong, with the next two games definitely on television and the Sept. 23 game at Georgia expected to be selected by either CBS or ESPN.
- Mirror Images. Here's a goofy scheduling quirk: on September 16, the Buffaloes host Arizona State, while the Colorado Rockies play at the Arizona Diamondbacks (both based in the Phoenix area); a week later on September 23, the Buffs play at Georgia, while the Rockies host the Atlanta Braves. It was close to a trifecta, as on September 30 when the Buffs play at Missouri, the Rox are at the Chicago Cubs, just up the road from St. Louis.
- TSN Players Poll. The first-ever Players Top 25 will be conducted this fall with the weekly results to be included in The Sporting News. Unlike the other polls, the players will not be identified and will be known only to the schools. Colorado has agreed to be one of the schools to participate in the experimental balloting; the yet to be selected player won't be identified until after the season has concluded.

SERIES HISTORY—COLORADO vs. MONTANA STATE

Montana State leads the all-time series 2-1, as the only previous meetings between the two came eight decades ago between 1925 and 1927. The series is tied in Boulder, as the Buffs (then known by many nicknames, mainly the Silver & Gold) won 23-3 on October 3, 1925 and the Bobcats won 6-3 the following season at Colorado Stadium (it wasn't renamed Folsom Field for another 18 years). In the lone game in Bozeman, MSU won 12-6 in 1927.

SERIES DID YOU KNOW — While two haven't met for years in football, the two schools see other weekly during ski season, as the Buffaloes and Bobcats are rivals in the Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate Ski Association (two of 10 teams in the NCAA West Region).

GAME RECAPS — The only available accounts from past games (without unearthing old microfilm, that is) are from old yearbooks. Here's how the three games were summed up in CU's Coloradoan (the writing is interesting, to say the least; CU was often at times referred to as State):

1925—Montana Bobcats Tamed 23 to 3. Swinging back into championship shape (following a 3-0 loss to Chadron), Coach (Myron) Witham's protégés swept the much-heralded Montana State eleven before them by a 23 to 3 score on Saturday, October 3, in the first conference game for the two schools. Showing a complete reversal of form from the previous week when Chadron inflicted upon Colorado its first defeat in three years, the two-time conference champion holders out-played and out-generated their opponents in every department of the game. Halfback (?) Connors and fullback (John) Adams played their best game of the season in this game. Both tore through the opponents line with slashing fury that accounted for most of State's points.

1926—State fans received a shock when Montana State defeated the varsity, 6-3, in the first conference game of the season. State scored late in the first half when (Bill) McGlone booted a pretty placement goal from the 25-yard line. A pass, Glynn to Wellington, netted Montana a touchdown near the end of the game and proved the winning tally, although State (CU) lost a good chance to score before the final gun when a pass just missed being completed behind the goal line.

1927—Colorado went down to defeat by a close margin of a touchdown to Montana State, a strong contender for championship honors. In justice to the coaching staff and team, we should recognize that an uncommon toll of injuries and the adoption of a too heavy schedule with accompanying long trips for games with Montana at Bozeman, Utah at Salt Lake City, and the University of Southern California at Los Angeles, were decisive factors in the final outcome of the season.

BUFFS & BOBCATS BY THE NUMBERS

Here's a look at some numbers-related trivia or fun facts with Colorado and Montana State:

- 0 The number of non-Division I-A opponents Colorado has played since the NCAA created the current divisional set-up in 1978;
- 4 This will be just the fourth meeting between the two schools, despite being two states and all of "two left turns" apart: Arapahoe Road (Colo. 7) to Interstate 25, I-25 to its end at Interstate 90 in northern Wyoming, left on I-90 to Bozeman;
- 7 The number of consecutive years that I-AA Montana State will play a Division I-A opponent with the Colorado game (going 0-6 thus far);
- 53 The combined number of points scored in the three games in the series (1925-27, 32 by Colorado, 21 by Montana State);
- 79 The number of years since the two schools last played, the second longest dormant series with an opponent for CU (the Buffs played Hawai'i in 1925);
- 488 The number of miles between Boulder and Bozeman;
- 4.5 (billion) The number of people born on Earth since the two last met: the world's population hit 2 billion in 1927, and 6.5 billion earlier this year.

DORMANT NO LONGER

It's been 79 years since Colorado and Montana State last played on the gridiron (though the two see each other six times annually as members of the RMISA—Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate Ski Association). The only series with a longer dormancy for CU is the one with Hawai'i, as the two met for the first and only time in 1925, or 81 years ago. The only other two schools CU once played but haven't seen in 40 years or more is Rice (the 1938 Cotton Bowl opponent), and the Buffs original true interstate rival, Utah (the two last played in 1962).

CONFERENCE CALL

- ➔ Colorado is 1-2 all-time versus current Big Sky schools, with all the games against Montana State.
- ➔ Montana State is 2-6 all-time versus Big 12 Conference schools: 2-1 vs. Colorado, 0-1 vs. Kansas, 0-1 vs. Oklahoma State, 0-1 vs. Texas Tech and 0-2 vs. Nebraska.

THE SET-UP

Colorado is 10-1 in its last 11 season openers played within the friendly confines of Folsom Field, dating back to a 45-3 win over Fresno State in 1988 through last year's thrilling 31-28 win over Colorado State. CU opened the season five times in Denver, all against CSU, between 1998 and 2003 sans a 2001 Folsom appearance where CU fell 24-22 to Fresno State in the Jim Thorpe Classic. Colorado is 73-38-5 in 116 season openers, which includes a 53-18-1 mark at Folsom Field (and overall, the Buffs are 16-2 in their last 18 home openers (1988-2005). The eight wins over Colorado State on opening day are the most by CU over any one team (1951, 1985, 1992, 1997, 1998, 2003, 2004, 2005), while the most season-opening losses CU has to one foe are the five to CSU (1919, 1986, 1999, 2000, 2002). The three games against Montana State between 1925-27 were all the second game of those seasons for Colorado (and the third, second and third, respectively for MSU).

MONTANA STATE NOTES & 2005 SEASON CAPSULE

Montana State posted a 7-4 record in 2005, rebounding from a 1-2 start to win six of its final eight games, including a 5-2 mark in Big Sky Conference play to claim a share of the league title. The Bobcats had a stingy pass defense, and have regularly led their conference in both passing and total defense this decade. Montana State is ranked No. 22 in the Sports Network Division I-AA preseason poll released in late July.

- ➔ Montana State head coach Mike Kramer is beginning his seventh season with the Bobcat program, as he owns a 32-38 record at the school, including a 23-20 mark in Big Sky Conference games; however, those numbers are a little deceiving, as they include marks of 0-11 and 0-8 in 2000 when he first took over the program. His teams have shared in three conference titles (2002, 2003, 2005). In 12 seasons overall, including six years at Eastern Washington, he owns a 69-70 overall record, which included a 12-2 mark at EWU in 1997.
- ➔ Though CU coach Dan Hawkins and Kramer have all kinds of coaching footprints in the Pacific Northwest, with many a common opponent, the two have never coached against each other (MSU and Boise State stopped playing each other after 1995 or they surely would have crossed paths).
- ➔ Familiar Faces: MSU's defensive coordinator is Rob Christoff, served as a graduate assistant for the Buffaloes in 1997 and 1998 when his father, A.J., was CU's defensive coordinator under then-CU head coach Rick Neuheisel. He is in his seventh year on the MSU staff. Former CU safety Tyrone Henderson, who was suspended by Hawkins for violating team rules, transferred to MSU just last week and is in the Bobcat two-deep for this game.
- ➔ The Bobcats lose their leading rusher, receiver, tackler and starting quarterback from last season, but do return PK Jeff Hastings (76 points, 16-21 FG).
- ➔ SPORTS INFORMATION CONTACT: Bill Lamberty, Assistant AD/Media Relations: 406/994-5133 (blamberty@msubobcats.com).

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: SEPTEMBER 2

Colorado is 1-1 all-time on September 2, having first played on the date in 1995; at the time, it was the second earliest game in school history to only an August 26 contest against Tennessee in 1990. 1995—In the first game of the Rick Neuheisel Era at Colorado, the Buffaloes went on the road and crushed No. 21 Wisconsin, 43-7. CU built a 10-0 lead, and after Wisconsin's only score, reeled off 33 unanswered points in posting the first win by a new CU head coach in 11 tries. 2000—Colorado State scored the go-ahead touchdown with 10:31 remaining and then thwarted CU twice down the stretch as the Rams came away with the win, 28-24.

SEPTEMBER 2 COLORADO MVP: Koy Detmer. In the win over Wisconsin, he completed 17-of-24 passes for 297 yards and three touchdowns, a 216.03 rating, the 11th best single game figure in Colorado history.

PRESEASON MAGAZINE NOTES

The Sporting News had a hit and a miss in its preseason magazine. First, it must have inadvertently left PK Mason Crosby off its list of Best Clutch Players For A Game Winning Kick (Mason's 12-of-13 in the fourth quarter and 10-of-10 with 8½ minutes or less remaining). However, it did rate Colorado as having the only "A+" for a coaching hire in Dan Hawkins: "The former Boise State coach is a proven motivator and winner—a guy whose entertaining style puts fannies in the seats and has recruits standing in line to play for him." TSN also selected ILB Thaddeaus Washington as the Big 12's hardest-hitting linebacker, and again cited the Buffaloes for playing the toughest schedule (and the fourth toughest in the nation).

Street & Smith's, however, did rate Crosby as being the best under pressure in the conference, and tabbed Washington's sidekick, ILB Jordan Dizon, as the league's hardest hitter and TB Hugh Charles as the Big 12's best athlete (he's a long jumper in track in addition to his football skills).

Lindy's Big 12 Football tabbed CU's secondary as the seventh-best unit in the nation, its special teams as the tops in the Big 12 and listed Crosby No. 10 on its list of 2007 NFL Draft Day talent. The magazine also selected its all-Big 12 team of the last two decades (1986-2005), with CU players nailing down five first-team selections (WR Michael Westbrook, OG Joe Garten, DE Alfred Williams, CB Deon Figures, P Barry Helton) and seven second-team choices (TB Rashaan Salaam, TE Daniel Graham, C Jay Leeuwenburg, OG Chris Naeole, PK Mason Crosby, ILB Matt Russell, CB Chris Hudson); in all, the Buffs had 12 of the 52 players selected, easily the most on the team, followed by Oklahoma (9), Nebraska (8), Texas (7), Baylor (3), Kansas State (3) and Oklahoma State (3) with the other five schools all with one. "The Catch" (CU's 27-26 win at Michigan in 1994) was selected as the most unforgettable moment.

Meanwhile, over on collegefootballnews.com, it ranked Dan Hawkins as the No. 17 coach nationally on a list of head coaches "you'd want to hire to run your program for the next few years." It stated, "Lots of schools wanted a piece of the Hawk the last couple of years, and the Buffs are thrilled to have caged him. It was only a matter of time before Hawkins out grew Boise, where he took the house Dirk Koetter started building and actually added a few impressive extensions. He's an energetic, no-nonsense type disciplinarian, whose teams are always well-prepared and sound in the fundamentals. Hawkins is well-respected and well-liked by the players and the community, and has an unusually voracious appetite for success." Number one on the list was Pete Carroll.

Of the 1,417 rushing yards by the Buffs in 2005, 1,159 were put in the books by players back this fall, or 82 percent; however, returning players accounted for only 93 passing yards (3 percent, all by James Cox). There were 1,218 receiving yards provided by those back in the fold, or 44 percent (and as standard CU policy, the bowl game is not included; if it was, the numbers adjust to 82-7-43 as Cox and Brian White combined for 107 yards against Clemson).

ROAD-SWEET-ROAD: BUFFS EIGHTH BEST IN ENEMY STADIUMS SINCE '88

The Buffaloes have enjoyed a lot of success on the road over the last 18 seasons. CU has been victorious 57 of the last 88 times in enemy stadiums and is 57-30-1 overall away from home (a 65.3 winning percentage). That stands eighth nationally (sixth in raw wins) and second among Big 12 Conference teams in this span. Going back 21 seasons (to 1985), CU is 65-36-1, a 64.9 winning clip. During this time frame, CU won a school record 10 straight road games between 1994 and 1996. The Buffaloes own a 46-22-1 mark in their last 68 road conference games (Big 8 & Big 12—five losses at Nebraska, two at Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas and Texas Tech; and one each at Baylor, Iowa State, Oklahoma State and Texas A&M; the tie was at K-State in 1993). CU is 21-19 on the Big 12 road since 1996 (2-2 in 2005). The chart to the right does not include neutral site games, despite some being anything but (i.e., Colorado vs. Texas at Irving for the '01 Big 12 title.)

12TH BEST IN THE NATION SINCE 1989

Colorado has the nation's 12th best record over the last 17 seasons, or since the start of 1989, CU has posted a 140-64-4 record. From opening 1-0 in '89, through the 10th game of the 2005 season, the Buffs owned one of the top 10 overall records in the nation (247 consecutive weeks); that was snapped with a loss to Nebraska late last year. The best Division I-A records from the start of 1989 through all games of 2005:

- 58 PK Mason Crosby's 58-yard field goal at Miami, Fla., is the longest at sea level without a tee in NCAA Division I-A history.
- 1,000 Long-time voice of the Buffaloes, Larry Zimmer, did his 400th CU broadcast in 2005 (at Texas on Oct. 15); by pure chance, it was also the 1,000th of his career counting other colleges and the NFL.

BIG 12 BOWL TIE-INS ALTERED BEGINNING IN 2006

The Big 12 Conference signed new agreements with the Gator, Sun and Insight bowls, beginning this fall, and ended previous arrangements with the Champs Sports and Fort Worth bowls. The new agreements run through 2009, and the league also re-upped for that same period of time with the bowls it retained relationships with: Fiesta, Cotton, Holiday, Alamo, Independence and Houston. The new Big 12 bowl lineup:

BCS/Tostitos Fiesta (vs. BCS)

MasterCard Alamo (vs. Big 10)

Insight (vs. Big 10)

AT&T Cotton (vs. SEC)

*Toyota Gator (vs. ACC)

Independence (vs. SEC)

Pacific Life Holiday (vs. Pacific 10)

*Vitalis Sun (vs. Pacific 10)

Ev1.net Houston (vs. Big East)

*—For the Gator and Sun bowls, the Big 12 is guaranteed a spot each season in one of the bowls, with no more than two appearances in either game over the four years of the contract.

INSTANT REPLAY

The 2005 season marked the first in the Big 12 Conference for instant replay. Colorado had just 12 plays reviewed on the year (in six total games), with just two being overturned. Here's the roll call of instant replay situations (where play was stopped for further review) for Colorado games in 2005:

40 WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS SEVENTH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 40 wins over Associated Press ranked teams since the start of the 1989 season rank as the seventh most in the nation in this time frame. Florida State has the most with 64, followed by Michigan (55), Florida (52), Miami, Fla. (49), Ohio State (46), Tennessee (46) and Colorado (40). Notre Dame (39), Penn State (38) and Alabama and Nebraska (34 each) round out the top 10. As for the Big 12, after CU and NU, the next schools on this list are Texas (32), Oklahoma (28), Texas A&M (18) and Texas Tech (17). All-time, Colorado's 63 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. (AP polls used for these figures because the coaches' poll omits teams on probation, but AP still ranks those teams.)

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- Colorado is 73-28 in its last 101 games against teams who were not undefeated at the time of the game;
- Colorado is 70-15 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- Colorado is 61-17-1 in its last 79 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- Colorado is 17-10 since 1986 against teams ranked between Nos. 20 and 25 in the AP poll (8-4 in the last 12);
- Colorado is 70-12-2 before crowds under 50,000 since the start of the 1989 season (20-5 last 25; 73-49-2 with 50,000-plus);

HEAD COACH DAN HAWKINS

Dan Hawkins is in his first season as head coach of the Colorado program, his sixth year as a Division I-A head coach, and his 11th season as a collegiate head coach. He owns a 0-0 record at Colorado, along with a 53-11 record in the Division I-A ranks (all at Boise State) and an overall career mark of 92-23-1 including five years at NAIA Willamette (Ore.) College. In his final year at Willamette (1997), his team posted a 13-1 record, falling in the NAIA Championship game, before moving on to Boise State where he was the assistant head coach along with coaching the tight ends and special teams while coordinating recruiting. When Dirk Koetter left BSU for Arizona State after the 2000 season, Hawkins was promoted to head coach. He took the Broncos to four bowl games in five years, with his 2004 team compiling an 11-0 regular season mark and ascending to No. 10 in the national polls; in the most anticipated non-BCS bowl game to date, Boise dropped a thriller to No. 7 Louisville (44-40). In the modern history of Division I-A football, only three coaches won more games in their first five games than Hawkins (53: bested by Bob Pruett, Marshall; Bob Stoops, Oklahoma; and Pete Carroll, USC).

➔ In 10 seasons as a head coach, Hawkins' teams have never been shutout, have never dropped more than two games in a row in the same season (and that's happened just three times), and have won at least eight games seven times (10-plus four times). Hawk's Handiwork:

- ◆ Hawkins has been a head coach for 116 games (92-23-1), with that record and 79.7 winning percentage tops in the nation for active coaches with 100 or more games coached for their career.
- ◆ Hawkins is one of the 63 Division I-A coaches voting in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll in 2006 (the sixth straight year he is a voter and the 20th straight year CU's head coach has participated).

HAWKINS AMONG THE BEST

Dan Hawkins has one of top records among all active Division I-A coaches; in fact, he is sixth entering 2006 and is listed among some of the top names in the profession. A closer look through all games of 2005:

EXPERIENCE

Colorado's 2006 coaching staff is youthful, yet experienced. Entering 2006, the 10 full-time coaches who comprise the Colorado coaching staff have coached a collective 76 seasons in Division I-A and have combined to coach in 952 games through the 2005 season (with a record of 613-335-4, .646). The aggregate age of the 10 is 399 years, thus making the average age 39.9, one of the younger staffs in the nation. Linebacker coach Brian Cabral is the elder statesman at 50, followed by secondary coach Greg Brown (48); five of the coaches are over 40, including head coach Dan Hawkins (45), with five under, with offensive coordinator Mark Helfrich the youngest (32). Helfrich is the fifth-youngest offensive coordinator in the Division I-A ranks; the only four who are younger include Major Applewhite, Rice (27), Brian Harsin, Boise State (29), Lane Kiffin, USC (30) and Ramon Flanigan, North Texas (31). COACHES ON GAME DAY

The coaching staff is split between the sidelines and the press box. Upstairs are offensive coordinator Mark Helfrich, running backs coach Darian Hagan, secondary coach Greg Brown, graduate assistants Andy Avalos and Joe Bever and technical assistants Mike Babcock and Donnell Leomiti. Head coach Dan Hawkins wears a headset on the sideline, along with defensive coordinator Ron Collins, linebackers coach Brian Cabral, offensive line coach Chris Strausser, passing game coordinator/receivers coach Eric Kiesau, defensive line coach Romeo Bandison and special teams/tight ends coach Kent Riddle. Plays are generally shuttled in from substituting players.

OLD-TIMER

Assistant head coach and linebacker coach Brian Cabral has taken his place among legendary assistant coaches who have spent time at Colorado. In his 17th season, he is now third all-time in years coached as a full-time member of the staff, as he trails two legendary Franks: Potts and Prentup, both who assisted for 18 years each. A closer look:

ASSISTANT COACH LONGEVITY: 1. Frank Potts 18 (1927-39, 1941-43, 1946-47) and Frank Prentup 18 (1941-58); 3. Brian Cabral 17 (1990-current); 4. Dan Stavelly 15 (1958, 1963-76); 5. Chet Franklin 12 (1963-74), Mike Hankwitz 12 (1985-94, 2004-05) and Alva Noggle 12 (1920-31); 7. Marshall Wells 11 (1948-58); 9. Ray Jenkins 10 (1948-57), and Jon Embree 10 (1993-2002).

THE SIMULATOR

Coors Field brought "The Humidor" into vogue; could CU be doing the same with "The Simulator?" A computer program from Gridiron Technologies that simulates every play, and aspect for that matter, of the offense tests quarterbacks on their assignments and reads. Coaches monitor the progress through printouts that summarize how the players did. While every offensive player has access to the simulator, offensive coordinator Mark Helfrich finds it particularly valuable for the quarterbacks. Helfrich brought the idea with him from Arizona State, where the program first developed and tested by an ASU alum. Helfrich calls the simulator a hybrid between the standard playbook and videotape.

CAPITAL RETURNS

CU's success often correlates directly with if it owns a hefty margin in return yards, as was the case in the 2001, 2002 and 2004 seasons—when the Buffs won the Big 12 North. The Buffs had advantages of 854-417 (2001), 803-607 (2002) and 574-499 (2004) in return yards, which includes all return yardage other than those on kickoffs. And the Buffs have 37 return touchdowns over the last seven seasons (33 regular season, four bowl game), tied for the seventh most in the nation for this span. SENIOR ANALYSIS

Colorado has 24 seniors on its 2006 roster, 17 of which are starters or practically co-starters in the rotation or on special teams: SS J.J. Billingsley, QB James Cox, TE Paul Creighton, PK Mason Crosby, OG Brian Daniels, C Mark Fenton, TE Dan Goettsch, TB Mell Holliday, WR Nick Holz (holder), DE Alex Ligon, WR Blake Mackey, CB Lorenzo Sims, OG Jack Tipton, DE Walter Boye-Doe, CB Terry Washington, ILB Thaddaeus Washington and DE Abraham Wright. Most of the others have some kind of role, and the last, S Dominique Brooks, is recovering from knee surgery and quite possibly will redshirt this fall.

GRADUATION STAT(U)S

Three of the 24 seniors on the roster have already graduated, having done so this August: OLB Ben Carpenter (business-finance; he is working on a second major in integrative physiology), WR Nick Holz (communication) and DT Marcus Jones (economics; he is working on a second major in sociology). Nine are in position to graduate this December: ILB Jason Ackermann (sociology), QB James Cox (communication), TE Paul Creighton (psychology), OLB Chad Cusworth (business-management), C Mark Fenton (political science), DE Alex Ligon (sociology), WR Blake Mackey (communication), OL Jack Tipton (architecture-planning) and DE Abraham Wright (sociology). Ten others are on target for next May: S J.J. Billingsley (sociology), DE Walter Boye-Doe (business-finance & marketing), PK Mason Crosby (communication), OG Brian Daniels (business-finance), TE Dan Goettsch (sociology), TB Mell Holliday (psychology), CB Lorenzo Sims (sociology), CB Terry Washington (ethnic studies), ILB Thaddaeus Washington (sociology) and CB Vance Washington (sociology). S Dominique Brooks (sociology) and OL Bryce MacMartin (chemical engineering) will likely graduate beyond next May, Brooks due to consideration of a possible redshirt and MacMartin because his major requires additional credit hours. In addition, two juniors, OT Tyler Polumbus (business-management) and WR Dusty Sprague (business-management) are in position to graduate next May.

► NOTE: Over the last four years (2002-05), CU has had 77 of its 87 seniors, including medicals, graduate; that translates to 88.5 percent (with two of the 10 non-grads still in school and looking to graduate within the next year, while three are in the NFL). NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, i.e., Wayne Lucier in '02 or WR Mike Duren in '04), but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer. It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially a tougher academic schools like Colorado.

MASON CROSBY CONSENSUS FIRST TEAM ALL-AMERICAN, RUNNER-UP FOR LOU GROZA AWARD

PK Mason Crosby was the consensus All-American placekicker 2005, as the Associated Press, FWAA, The Sporting News and Walter Camp afforded him the honor. He finished as the runner-up for the Lou Groza Award, losing out to Oregon State's Alexis Serna by just six points (out of 175-plus ballots). He made his debut as a freshman in 2003, but really burst on the scene in 2004 with an assault on the school's field goal records, the crown jewel being a school and Folsom Field record 60-yard kick against Iowa State. He then opened his junior season in grand style on his 21st birthday (Sept. 3), scoring 11 points (3-3 FG, 2-2 PAT) in the 31-28 win over Colorado State. Those included a 48-yard field goal to tie the score at 21-21 with 2:32 left, and a game-winning 47-yard boot with 0:04 on the clock. A first-team all-Big12 performer in both 2004 and 2005, he is CU's first-ever first-team All-American at placekicker as he has continued to rewrite the CU record book.

His first entry in the books in 2005 was when he set the record for consecutive field goals made, and tied the school mark for the longest field goal on the road with a 58-yard field goal at Miami, the longest kick without a tee at sea level in NCAA history. Feel free to proceed if you want to be impressed:

- ➔ He set four school records in 2004, to go with his record for points by a freshman (52) he established in 2003. He added four more in 2005, and has positioned himself nicely for many career marks.
- ➔ He established the school consecutive field goal made streak with 10, dating back to the final three games of 2004 before a 55-yard try went wide left on him in the New Mexico State game. The old mark had been nine (reminder: he was 4-of-6 in the 2004 Houston Bowl 2004, but CU does not count bowl stats into its records as they are separated out).
- ➔ The 60-yarder against Iowa State in 2004 was the longest in the NCAA last year as well as the longest in Division I-A since 1999. It was just the 10th field goal of 60 yards or more in the NCAA since 1988, when tees were no longer allowed; no kicker has made two.
- ➔ His 58-yard field goal at Miami not only preserved CU's scoring streak at 200 games, it is the longest field goal in NCAA history at sea level without the use of a kicking tee (see chart on next page). That kick is also tied for the longest in the NCAA in 2005.
- ➔ He had five field goals of 50 yards or longer as a sophomore in 2004, which was not only a CU single season record (several had two), it set a career mark as the old best had been three, by both Dave DeLine and Jim Harper. Including the Houston Bowl, when he had a 54-yarder, he had six 50-plus for the year which led the nation, topping Ohio State's Mike Nugent, the Groza Award winner (the NCAA record is eight).
- ➔ He has five 50-plus yard kicks again in 2005, again tops in the nation, with four coming on the road (58 at Miami; 52 and 50 at Kansas State; 57 at Iowa State).
- ➔ He was 19-of-23 in 2004 in FGs, with the 19 makes covering 725 yards, an average of 38.2 yards per kick (his four misses: 46.3).
- ➔ He was 21-of-28 in 2005 in FGs, with the 21 makes covering 865 yards, an average of 41.2 yards per kick (his seven misses: 44.1).
- ➔ He is 47-of-60 in field goals in his career (51-of-66 including bowls), 23-of-25 inside 40 yards and a most respectable 24-of-35 from 41 yards or longer in the regular season. He is second in career field goals made and tied for first in kick scoring (231 points).
- ➔ He has made four field goals in a game three times (Iowa State, Nebraska and UTEP in the Houston Bowl, all in 2004).
- ➔ He made four of the 10 longest field goals in the NCAA in 2004 (60, 55, 54, 54), including the only one longer than 50 yards in bowls; his 55-yard kick against CSU in the opener was CU's first from 50-plus yards in 11 seasons. He has three of the six longest in the NCAA in 2005.
- ➔ The average field position for the opponent after his kickoffs the 22, as 110 of his 157 career kicks have gone for touchbacks; 12 of the 45 returned against him have not been brought back beyond the 20; only nine have gone beyond the 30 and just one none beyond the 40 and 50 (on his 156th career kickoff).
- ➔ Perhaps his best kick ever was also in the 2004 Iowa State game--an 87-yard kickoff for a touchback after he had to boot it from the 20-yard line following a penalty. "I didn't even expect that. I was just trying to get it up in the air to give the coverage team time to get down there," Crosby said.
- ➔ He has been selected the Big 12 Conference's Special Teams Player-of-the-Week seven times in his career (CSU, Miami, Kansas State and Missouri this year; for Iowa State and Nebraska in 2004; and for KU in 2003). That puts Crosby in select company: the seven is tied for the most in a career with two other players in Big 12 history: RB Ricky Williams (Texas, 1996-98) and QB Eric Crouch (NU, 1998-2001). Williams was recognized five times in 1998 (Heisman season); Crosby ('05) and Texas Tech QB Kliff Kingsbury ('02) are the only others to honored at least four times in a season.
- ➔ The Lou Groza Award Committee has named him one of its three "Stars of the Week" on four occasions (Iowa State in '04; CSU, Miami and K-State in '05).
- ➔ ACTIVE NCAA KICKING RANKINGS (includes his Houston Bowl stats, which CU does not include): Field Goals Made (t-6th/51); FG Made/Game (9th/1.4); FG Accuracy (10th/77.3); Scoring (16th/246 points).
- ➔ Late Game Heroics. Crosby has made a name for himself in the clutch, as he is 12-of-13 in the fourth quarter, including 10-of-10 in the final 8½ minutes with eight kicks of 41 yards or longer and seven of them with the score of the game within six points. A closer look:

TAKE THIS ALTITUDE ARGUMENT AND SHOVE IT

To paraphrase the classic Johnny Paycheck song, that is... Crosby's 58-yard field goal at Miami in 2005 (Sept. 24), elevation seven feet, is the longest field goal in NCAA history at sea level without the use of a kicking tee (all kicks after 1988 are without one). It tied for the third longest, tee or not, at altitude in college and for the fifth longest when including the National Football League. Seeing how he accomplished something most kickers who kick at lower altitudes historically never do, this should end once and for all the altitude arguments used against CU kickers and punters when it comes to All-America and trophy consideration. (In fact, four of his five 50-plus yard kicks in 2005 came on the road, including a 57-yard boot in horrific wind at Iowa State.) A closer look:

QUOTE: "He is a great kicker. When he came out of high school, you could see he was a really good kicker. He has got that special work ethic; you never have to tell him to go work because he is always driven to get better on his own. When you have that work ethic, talent and desire like he does, then you will be able to succeed. He has got a leg. We'll see him in the NFL; he'll be good enough." — Ravens Pro Bowl placekicker Matt Stover, the third-most accurate kicker in NFL history, who coached Mason in high school during summers.

RECORD WATCH

The list of records that were set in 2005 totaled 54 in all (45 individual, nine team), the majority by QB Joel Klatt and PK Mason Crosby; Crosby is in position to set numerous records, school and possibly Big 12 and NCAA. Crosby already owns or shares 12 records heading into his senior year and has several more just ahead of him. NOTE: A reminder that when it comes to records, CU did not adopt the NCAA 2002 policy of adding bowl game statistics in its season or career numbers.

THE BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST

Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

Games	All-Time Record	1989-05 Record	Dan Hawkins Record	Coach With The Most Wins
versus Top 5.....	11-48-2	7-16-1	0-0	5 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 10.....	24-82-3	13-27-2	0-0	8 / Eddie Crowder & Bill McCartney
versus Top 15.....	36-99-3	19-32-2	0-0	10 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 25.....	66-126-3	40-45-2	0-0	20 / Bill McCartney

CU and Nebraska have been the saving grace for the Big 12: the 10-year old league owns a 28-59 record against ranked non-conference opponents (including bowls) since its inception in 1996, and the Buffs own eight of those wins. CU is 8-9 against ranked non-Big 12 foes; Nebraska is 8-4, Texas 4-5, Kansas State 2-3, Oklahoma 2-1, Baylor 1-3, Iowa State 1-7, Kansas 0-2, Oklahoma State 0-4, Missouri 0-5, Texas Tech 1-7 and Texas A&M 0-9. CU has played 17 of the 87 games, with Nebraska next with 12 (no one else has played 10).

Against all-non league foes (non-conference opponents and bowl games), the records are: Nebraska 35-5, Kansas State 33-5, Oklahoma State 26-7, Texas 29-9, Oklahoma 27-10, Kansas 22-10, Iowa State 24-11, Texas A&M 25-12, Texas Tech 26-13, Missouri 23-11, Colorado 23-15 and Baylor 19-12 (remember traditionally CU plays one of the Big 12's, and the nation's, more challenging schedules and has avoided scheduling automatic wins for non-league games).

TRENDS

Since 1985, when the Buffs returned to their traditional winning ways after six frustrating years, Colorado is 168-83-4, the 16th best record nationally in this span). In these 255 games, CU has posted the following records (including bowls):

◆ with 400-plus yards total offense	100-16-2	◆ when holding opponent under 300 yards total offense	82-12-1
◆ with 500-plus yards total offense	50- 5-0	◆ when leading at halftime (121-12-2 in last 135)	137-14-2
◆ when leading in time of possession	109-21-3	◆ when leading after three quarters (137-10-3 in last 150)	141-12-3
◆ when making 20-plus first downs	103-27-1	◆ when scoring 24 or more points	136-17-2
◆ when converting 50 percent or better on 3rd down	65- 7-1	◆ when scoring 14 or more points	165-50-4
◆ when punting three or fewer times	60-11-1	◆ when held to 13 points or less	3-33-0
◆ when scoring first	108-21-1	◆ when not committing a turnover or allowing a sack	12- 0-0
◆ with two or fewer turnovers (30-7-2 with zero)	121-37-2	◆ when passing for more yards than rushing	70-56-2
◆ when holding opponent to 17 points or less	100-15-1	◆ when holding edge in 1st downs & possession time	91-14-2
◆ when holding opponent under 100 yards rushing	85- 7-1

TRENDS II

Since 1989, when the Buffs became a regular in the national rankings, Colorado has posted the nation's 12th best overall record at 140-64-4. Here are some trends during this time frame (208 games, including bowls):

➤ when running more plays than the opponent	77-23-3	➤ when rushing for 200-plus yards	73- 4-1

➤ when play selection is 50 percent rushing calls	117-18-2

TRENDS III

Some trends of new Colorado coach Dan Hawkins at his former school, Boise State; the Broncos were 53-11 under his guidance in five seasons (64 games, including bowls):

➤ when scoring 20 or more points (0-5 when not)	53- 6	➤ when leading after three (6-10 trailing ,2-0 when tied)	45- 1

➤ with two or fewer turnovers (7-0 with zero)	38- 8	➤ with a 100-yard rusher	27- 0

➤ when leading at halftime	43- 3	➤ with 500-plus yards total offense (5-0 with 600-plus)	23- 1
➤ when trailing at halftime (4-0 when tied)	6- 8

TURNOVERS ARE COSTLY

Dan Hawkins falls in line with most, if not all, head coaches when it comes to turnovers, and that they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. He has penalties and rewards daily in the practice dependent on the number of turnovers committed or forced. Gary Barnett drilled home to his teams the importance of taking care of the football. Statistics back up the argument, as the below will show that it is definitely better to take than to give over the last 17 seasons, in which CU owns the nation's 12 best overall record:

	Turnovers		+/-	Scoring Off Turnovers
	Committed	Forced		PF	PA	+/-
140 WINS	235	358	+123	1,198	456	+742
64 LOSSES (& 4 TIES)	177	111	- 66	262	582	-320
17-SEASON TOTAL (208 Games)	412	469	+57	1,460	1,038	+422

CAREER GAMES PLAYED/STARTED CHART

Listed below is the career games played/started, including bowls, for the players on the 2006 Colorado Buffaloes. The players on this year's opening roster collectively had played in 1,053 games, with 273 starts, not too far off from last year's numbers (1,080 and 314, respectively), which was the most experienced overall since the late 1990's. Recent past numbers entering the year: 1,080/314 (2005), 761/182 (2004), 845/239 (2003), 883/278 (2002), 694/223 (2000) and 790/229 (1999). The list (includes bowls):

STARTING STREAKS

C Mark Fenton owns the longest starting streak on the team at 26 games, dating back to the first game of his sophomore season in 2004. But after him, the next players are SS J.J. Billingsley and DE Abraham Wright, both with 13, followed by ILB Thaddaeus Washington (11) and OG Brian Daniels (10). Daniels owns the most career starts with 33 (he was sidelined for a game with broken ribs early in 2005), followed by Billingsley (31), CB Lorenzo Sims (25) and ILB Jordon Dizon and Washington (23).

SIXTEEN "SEASONED" IN 2005

In 2005, 16 players had their first taste of action in a Colorado uniform, with 15 returning for 2006. In the opener against Colorado State, eight players hit the field for the very first time as a Colorado Buffalo, including one true freshman (ILB Marcus Burton, who played eight snaps from scrimmage); five followed suit for their first game action in game two against New Mexico State. DE Maurice Lucas had been the last to do so, in game six at Texas, until WR Tim Lemon played two snaps against UT in the Big 12 title game. In 2004, 26 saw their first collegiate action for the Buffaloes, with 24 players doing so in 2003; the latter included two scholarship kickers making CU likely the first team in the nation in a very long time that had two freshmen scholarship kickers play in the first game of the year. The list (*—mainly special teams duty):

TRUE FRESHMEN (6): S Ben Burney, ILB Marcus Burton, DT George Hypolite, WR Tim Lemon, DE Maurice Lucas, CB Gardner McKay.

SOPHOMORES (1): *WR Chase McBride.

JUNIORS (4): WR Alvin Barnett, *OLB Chad Cusworth, OL Bryce MacMartin, *CB Terry Washington.

SENIORS (0).

ELEVEN MADE FIRST CAREER STARTS IN 2005

Four players started for the first time in their CU careers in opener against Colorado State, all on the offensive side of the ball: TB Hugh Charles, OT Tyler Polumbus, WR Dusty Sprague and OG Jack Tipton. A week later, OG Daniel Sanders made his first start in place of an injured Brian Daniels against New Mexico State. At Miami, OG Edwin Harrison started for the first time in a retooled line to combat several injuries. In the league opener at Oklahoma State, DE Alonzo Barrett was rewarded with his first career start. At Texas, WR Alvin Barnett was in for the first play, giving CU a potential threat to run a reverse. Against Kansas, CB Terry Washington made his first start in place of an injured Lorenzo Sims, while at Kansas State, DE Maurice Lucas did the same for Alex Ligon. TB Byron Ellis started in game nine, subbing for a banged up Charles. In 2004, 12 players made their first career starts in a CU uniform (10 returned this fall); in 2003, 20 players made their first career starts, the most first starts in since 1998, when there were 27 first-time starters for the Buffaloes, 17 on offense and 10 on defense. Those were the most since 1984, when 29 made their first starts (15 on offense). The annual number of first-time starters since 1984:

ANNUAL FIRST-TIME STARTERS: 1984 (29), 1985 (9), 1986 (15), 1987 (14), 1988 (16), 1989 (7), 1990 (16), 1991 (23), 1992 (15), 1993 (7), 1994 (6), 1995 (11), 1996 (8), 1997 (14), 1998 (27), 1999 (14), 2000 (16), 2001 (12), 2002 (16), 2003 (20), 2004 (12) and 2005 (11).

EXPERIENCE ANALYSIS

In 2004, seniors started the fewest percentage of games (25.1) since the 1995 team (which had only seven seniors), while 38.8 percent of the starts were made by underclassmen. That showed the youth of the team, especially since underclassmen also had 41.7 percent of the starts in 2003. Fast-forward to 2005, and for 13 games, 80 percent of the starters were seniors (116) and juniors (112), with sophomores starting in all but 10 of the other 58 slots. In 2002, the numbers were flopped as well: upperclassmen started 93 percent of the games. It's basically a cyclical pattern, and that shows up when looking at the breakdown of the starters over the course of the season. A year-by-year look at starts by class:

- 2005 starters (13 games): Seniors (116), Juniors (112), Sophomores (48), Freshmen (10; redshirts 4, true 5). Upperclassmen: 80%
- 2004 starters (13 games): Seniors (72), Juniors (103), Sophomores (100), Freshmen (11; redshirts 0, true 11). Upperclassmen: 39%
- 2003 starters (12 games): Seniors (105), Juniors (49), Sophomores (78), Freshmen (32; redshirts 14, true 18). Upperclassmen: 58%
- 2002 starters (14 games): Seniors (155), Juniors (130), Sophomores (14), Freshmen (9; redshirts 0, true 9). Upperclassmen: 93%
- 2001 starters (13 games): Seniors (102), Juniors (95), Sophomores (83), Freshmen (7; redshirts 7, true 0). Upperclassmen: 69%
- 2000 starters (11 games): Seniors (55), Juniors (116), Sophomores (38), Freshmen (33; redshirts 15, true 18). Upperclassmen: 71%
- 1999 starters (12 games): Seniors (115), Juniors (42), Sophomores (86), Freshmen (21; redshirts 20, true 1) Upperclassmen: 56%

A BAKER'S DOZEN OF THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 13 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. The latest was one of the most spectacular of the lot: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it along in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat in 2004 when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State; a week later, he was injured early against Washington State, and his sub, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process. Against Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and race 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. Ben Kelly didn't do with an interception, but he did take his first career punt return back for a TD (against Utah State). In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

Entering 2006, the radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer, has called 407 games in his career, including 144 in a row (he's only missed three bowl games, two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts, and three regular season games due to travel conflicts); his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. SID Dave Plati has worked 309, including the last 267 in a row, while facilities man John Krueger has worked 267 in all (117 straight). Brian Cabral is the football staffer with the most "Buff" experience, as he has now coached in 208 in a row as an assistant coach; including his playing days (46 games), he has been a part of 254 CU games. The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. Senior associate AD Jon Burianek who retired this past June, is next as he worked 432 CU football games, including a closing run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home; he's seen 453 all told). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; he saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

TWO-MINUTE WARNING

Colorado has scored 110 times in 169 tries, including 18 game winning or tying scores, when the offense has been put into the two-minute drill since 1988 (or 65 percent of the time). CU was 4-of-9 in 2005: the Buffs were 1-for-2 against CSU, including the game winning field goal, 1-of-1 with a first half TD march against New Mexico State, 0-of-1 at Miami, 1-of-1 at OSU (first half field goal), 1-of-1 at Texas (first half TD) and 0-of-1 at Iowa State, versus Nebraska and against Clemson in the bowl. CU was 4-for-5 in 2004, including a second half go-ahead score at Texas A&M and the game winning touchdown versus Kansas State. In 2003, the Buffs scored twice in as many tries in the season opener against Colorado State, registering a TD at the end of the first half and the game-winning score at the end of the game—CU's first in the two-minute drill since 1999. Lo and behold, the Buffs did it again in the offense the following week, putting the game winning score on the board with 2:15 left against UCLA. In Gary Barnett's tenure, the Buffs were 31 of 57 in the drill (19 TD/12 FG). One of the most prolific years in the drill came in 1994, when CU was 7-of-8; that included two scores in the final two minutes at Michigan, including that certain play of the decade. Between 1988 and 1994, Colorado was an amazing 61-of-81 in the two-minute offense, with 44 touchdowns. The chart showing CU's scores:

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 30 seasons. Since 1976 (game 1), CU has protected a two-score lead 203 of 216 times, losing 10 and tying three when it blew the lead. A closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 16 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent loss came at Texas A&M last year, where the Buffs led 19-10 entering the quarter and regained the lead 26-23 after falling behind 23-19. In conference play, only Kansas (1984), Nebraska (1984, 1998, 1999, 2001), Oklahoma State (1997) and Texas A&M (2004) have rallied in the fourth to topple CU in this span. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

- In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 29 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The two most recent wins of this variety came against Texas-El Paso in the 2004 Houston Bowl and in the season opener against CSU this season (rallying from 9 and 11 points down, respectively).
- Colorado has won 87 of its last 92 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead—the current streak is 9 (and 14 of the last 15)—a 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 19-game winning streak in such situations (and one of 26 straight on the road), and two games later, Texas Tech mustered a similar comeback. A streak of 49 consecutive wins between 1993 and 1999 was snapped in 2000 (to CSU; Iowa State also did it later that year).

DOMINATION

Colorado has only 19 losses to unranked teams since dropping the 1987 season opener to Oregon: to BYU (1988 Freedom Bowl), Stanford (1991), Missouri (1997), Kansas (1998), CSU, Washington and Texas Tech (1999), CSU, Texas A&M and Kansas (2000), Fresno State (2001), CSU and Wisconsin (2002), Washington State, Baylor and Kansas State (2003), Missouri (2004) and Iowa State and Nebraska last year. BYU reappeared in the '88 final rankings; Stanford went 7-1 after CU to crack the top 20; in '97, MU almost beat Nebraska the following week and made its way into polls for the first time in 14 seasons; CSU appeared at No. 24 after defeating CU in '99; in '01, Fresno toppled No. 10 Oregon State the next week and zoomed into the rankings; in '02, CSU climbed as high as No. 13; and WSU cracked the polls after its win in Boulder in 2003. The Buffs are 82-17-2 in their last 101 games against unranked teams (AP), along with a record of 113-19-2 in the last 134. The Buffs are 150-64-4 in regular season games since the start of the 1986 Big Eight Conference season (8-8 in bowls); 104-47-3 in Big 8/12 games (including four league title games) and 46-17-1 in non-conference regular season action.

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 26 occasions (and is 20-6 in games when this occurs). It's happened nine times over the last six-plus seasons, three times in 2004: at Texas A&M (TB Bobby Purify/WR Dusty Sprague), versus Kansas State (Purify/WR Ron Monteilh) and at Nebraska (Purify/WR Blake Mackey). It happened three games in a row late in 2001, including the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game (TB Cortien Johnson at Iowa State: 172 rushing and 105 receiving); Johnson and TE Daniel Graham did it against Missouri, Graham and TB's Chris Brown and Bobby Purify all did it against Nebraska. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 171 of the 2004 CU football media guide (yes, last year's book; thanks again, NCAA).

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs have scored in a school record 210 consecutive games (dating back to 1988, the longest streak in the Big 12), last being shutout on November 12, 1988 at Nebraska (7-0). CU has scored in 112 straight games at home (last shutout: a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986 in a game where the Sooners did not attempt a single pass). The Buffs have scored in 83 consecutive road games (108 including neutral sites). The Buffs have scored in 134 straight league games (all 84 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska). CU has scored in 116 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979). The home shutout losses to Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only two times CU has not scored at home over the course of the last 250 games (all the way back to 1963). CU has been shutout just seven times in its last 442 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only four schools have done it: Oklahoma (three times), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State and Michigan. Big 12 Conference Consecutive Game Scoring Streaks (through 2005): Colorado 210, Nebraska 125, Kansas State 115, Texas Tech 104, Oklahoma 93, Kansas 38, Missouri 36, Iowa State 27, Texas A&M 25, Texas 20, Oklahoma State 7, Baylor 2. CU is the last team to shutout both Kansas State (12-0 in 1996) and Oklahoma State (34-0 in 2005).

SCORING STREAKS II

The school record 210 consecutive games in which Colorado has scored is the sixth longest active streak in the nation. The list of the nine Division I-A schools that have scored in every game since at least the start of the 1993 season, through games of 2005:

School	Streak	Last Shutout	:	School	Streak	Last Shutout

210 AND COUNTING

It was a close call, but Mason Crosby's 58-yard field goal extended CU's scoring streak to the 200-game plateau in a 23-3 loss at Miami. The 210-game streak currently stands as the 13th longest in Division I-A college history:

School	Streak	Dates	Ended By	School	Streak	Dates	Ended By
Brigham Young	361	9/27/1975 - 11/15/2003	Utah	Nebraska	233	1/01/1974 - 11/29/1991	Miami, Fla.

Oregon	244	10/05/1985 - present	Virginia	195	9/15/1984 - 10/28/2000	Georgia Tech

The streak of 210 games started on November 19, 1988; here's a look at some of things in the news that day and week CU began its record scoring run:

- ◆ The media reported on President Ronald Reagan signing three executive orders the previous day in relation to FEMA and catastrophic nuclear accidents. Reagan was wrapping up his second term, as George H.W. Bush was elected into office 11 days earlier on November 8;
- ◆ In the NBA, the Doug Moe-coached Denver Nuggets crushed the L.A. Clippers, 134-107 (Alex English was the highest paid player on Denver, at $1.65 million);
- ◆ Robert Plant of Led Zeppelin fame was touring that night in Tulsa, Okla.;
- ◆ The Escape Club owned the nation's top single on that date with their hit, Wild, Wild West, taking the spot over from the Beach Boys' Kokomo;
- ◆ The Top 10 television shows at the time included: The Cosby Show, Roseanne, A Different World, Cheers, The Golden Girls, Who's The Boss, 60 Minutes, Murder She Wrote, Empty Nest and Anything But Love.

OPPONENTS IN 2006

The 2006 Colorado schedule is once again one of the toughest in the nation, and for the ninth time in 11 seasons, boasts the toughest non-conference slate in the Big 12 Conference. Though the Buffs open with Montana State, their first-ever I-AA opponent, the next three, in order, are comprised of Colorado State, one of the nation's most underrated rivalries, followed by two opponents, both ranked in the preseason, that CU has never played before in Arizona State and Georgia. The Buffs then open league play on the road for the fourth straight year. Colorado has nine '05 bowl teams on its 2006 schedule (Arizona State, Colorado State, Georgia, Iowa State, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Texas Tech) with this year's 12 foes combining overall for a 76-56 record in 2005, a winning percentage of 57.6. Two others just missed out on the postseason after recording 5-6 marks (Baylor, Kansas State), with Montana State a co-champion of the Big Sky Conference in I-AA play. The roll call of 2006 opponents and their 2005 records: Montana State (7-4), Colorado State (6-6), Arizona State (7-5), Georgia (10-3), Missouri (7-5), Baylor (5-6), Texas Tech (9-3), Oklahoma (8-4), Kansas (7-5), Kansas State (5-6), Iowa State (7-5) and Nebraska (8-4).

➤ Twos Are Wild. Colorado will have two consecutive home games and two in a row on the road twice in 2006; that hasn't happened on a CU docket since 1974, when the Buffs opened at LSU and Michigan, closed at Oklahoma State and Kansas State, and along the way had back-to-back home games with Iowa State and Oklahoma and then Nebraska and Kansas.

➤ Two In A Row. For the second straight year, CU finishes up non-league play on the road and then opens Big 12 action the very next week also away from home. It also happened in 2003, though there was an open week between playing at Florida State and then at Baylor. It hasn't occurred that frequently in CU history, just eight times since 11-game schedules came into vogue in 1971: 1972, 1979, 1981, 1987, 1994, 2003, 2005 and this year (though in 1975 in happened in reverse, with the first conference game at Oklahoma a week ahead of the last non-league game at Miami, Fla.).

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 31 Colorado Buffaloes on the 2006 National Football League training camp rosters as of August 29. CU had 23 on the rosters at the end of the 2005 season, which tied for third in the Big 12, trailing Nebraska and Texas A&M (both 27); Oklahoma also had 23, Kansas State (20) and Texas (19). Nationally in 2005, CU was tied for the 17th most players produced—Florida State led with 42, followed by Tennessee (37), Georgia and Ohio State (35), Michigan (34) and Miami, Fla. (33); CU was 12th in 2004 with 27, tied for 13th in 2003 with 29, and was 10th in 2002, also with 29). The Buffs had 42 report to camps in 2003, which led the Big 12 Conference. CU led the Big 12 in this area in the first four years of the conference's existence, was second in 2002 and 2003, and was third in 2000, 2001, 2004 and 2005. Nationally, CU was in the top four between 1996-99 (fourth in 1996-97-99, third in 1998). AND IN CANADA? Another former Buff is making his living north of the border in the Canadian Football League, as C Marwan Hage played with the Hamilton Tigercats for the second straight year.

A DECADE WORTH OF NUMBERS: Colorado had 46 players drafted between 1993 and 2002, the seventh most in the nation and second most in the Big 12. Tennessee led the way with 60, followed by Florida State (58), Nebraska (53), Ohio State (52), Florida (48), Miami, Fla. (47) and then Colorado.

NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltenberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepsis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE?

In recent times, CU has been a solid conduit to the National Football League when it has come to linebackers, encroaching a bit on the title justifiably thrown Penn State's direction. However, some research has indicated CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 19 of 25 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

SKED AHEAD

In a quirk that is really just happenstance, Colorado only has one game in 2006 where its opponent will have played on the road the previous week (Kansas' the Jayhawks are at Baylor before hosting the Buffs on Oct. 28; however, CU is also on the road at Oklahoma). Otherwise, with the exception of the Montana State and Nebraska games (both open the previous week), the other nine opponents play at home before lining up against CU, including the second through fifth opponents who play non-BCS schools (CSU: Weber State; ASU: Nevada; UGA: UAB; MU: Ohio). CU will have back-to-back road games twice in '06, joined by Baylor, Missouri, Oklahoma and Texas Tech; Kansas State has none, Oklahoma State actually has three in a row (with an open week after the first one), with the other five schools having back-to-backers away from the confines of home once.

A SCHEDULE FIRST... CU WAS ONE OF THE LAST

Colorado opens the 2006 season against Montana State (the two last met in 1927 as members of the old Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference), marking its first game against a non-Division I-A opponent since the current divisional setup was created in 1978. Through 2005, CU had been one of just nine Division I-A schools to play all of its games in its division (no I-AA or II opponents). That changes this season, as the number will drop to seven, as another of the nine, California, hosts Portland State in late September. The seven remaining schools yet to do so are Michigan, Michigan State, Notre Dame, Ohio State, USC, UCLA and Washington. There are no non-IA opponents on any future CU schedule at this time.

➤ 73 of 119 Division I-A teams will play a game outside of Division I-A in 2006 (New Mexico State will play two); 26 of the games are season openers. Northwestern (La.) State (Baylor, Kansas, Mississippi) and SE Louisiana (New Mexico State, Southern Miss, Texas Tech) play the most I-A teams; several are playing two.

➤ 11 Big 12 Conference schools have contests against I-AA opponents, regionalized in several instances (i.e., CU-Montana State; ISU-Northern Iowa; Texas-Sam Houston State). Oklahoma is the lone Big 12 team not to have a game outside I-A.

USUALLY IN 'EM

Colorado's usually been in those few games it has lost over the last 17 seasons. Of the 64 losses, 32 have been by eight points or less (15 of the 39 losses in the Gary Barnett Era). Texas (five times), Nebraska (four) and Oklahoma and Kansas State (three each) are the only ones who have handled the Buffs by nine or more points more than twice since 1989. CU has really been dominated from the start only seven times in this stretch (1992 at Nebraska, 1997 at Michigan, 1999 vs. CSU (though CU led in total yardage over 75 percent of the game), 2002 vs. USC, 2004 in the Big 12 title game with Oklahoma, and twice in 2005, both against Texas. K-State ('00), Texas ('01 & '04), WSU ('03), Florida State ('03), Oklahoma State ('04), Miami and Nebraska ('05) put the game out of reach in the third quarter.

NO CREAMPUFFS HERE

Colorado has the 12th best record in college football since the start of 1989 season (140-64-4). Of these 208 games, Colorado has played 87 ranked teams (42%), the fourth most in the nation during this time frame, with another 32 games against teams receiving significant (10 or more) votes. CU is 40-45-2 against ranked teams during this period (including a 13-18 record on the road); CU is also 100-18-2 against unranked teams. The schedule is also consistent: CU has played the fourth most games against ranked teams the last 12 years (66 of its last 154 contests), going 3-3 in 1993, 5-1 in 1994, 5-2 in 1995, 2-2 in 1996, 1-5 in 1997, 3-3 in 1998, 2-2 in 1999, 0-5 in 2000, 5-2 in 2001, 2-3 in 2002, 2-3 in 2003, 0-4 in 2004 and 0-4 in 2005. NOTE: In 1990, CU became only the second team in NCAA history to win the national championship after playing the nation's toughest schedule (opponents won 63% of their games; Penn State was the first to accomplish the feat, in 1982). CU also played the nation's toughest in 1997: opponents won 67% of their games as the Buffs played both co-national champions, Michigan and Nebraska.

2007 & 2009 SCHEDULES COMPLETED AS CU-MIAMI, OHIO AGREE TO HOME-AND-HOME SERIES

Colorado and Miami, Ohio have agreed to a home-and-home series that has enabled the Buffaloes to complete their 2007 and 2009 schedules. The RedHawks will come to Boulder on September 22, 2007, with the Buffs set to return the game on September 12, 2009 (in Oxford, about 30 miles north of Cincinnati). ESPN has already guaranteed the schools that it will televise the second game; television rights for the first one first belong to ABC, and then FSN/TBS. A CU connection with the RedHawks is their athletic director Brad Bates, who was CU's strength and conditioning coach between 1982-84, coming to Boulder with Bill McCartney. It will be the first time the schools will play in football, and just the second game for CU against current Mid-America Conference opponents; the Buffs own a 42-0 win over Kent State in 1977. Colorado's immediate future football schedules:

New football coach Dan Hawkins was joined by two of the most significant figures in CU football history on the cover of this year's football media guide, Eddie Crowder and Bill McCartney.

Crowder coached the Buffaloes from 1963-73, and after stepping down, continued on as athletic director through the summer of 1984. In 1982, he hired McCartney, who had built an impressive resume as the defensive coordinator at the University of Michigan.

Byron "Whizzer" White is often, and correctly, credited with putting CU football on the map in the 1930s. Coach Dal Ward led the Buffalo athletic program in its next step to prominence, into the Big Seven Conference in 1948, where his teams often gave national powerhouse Oklahoma fits during its supreme reign in the 1950s.

One of the Sooners' quarterbacks was Crowder, an All-American in 1952. Little did he know at the time that 11 years later at the age of 32 he would be the man called upon to right Colorado's football ship. Not only did he restore respectability and national respect to the program, he took the Buffaloes to new heights, as his 1971 team finished No. 3 in the nation—behind Big Eight rivals Nebraska and Oklahoma, to this day still the only occasion one conference has boasted the top three teams in the final rankings.

Crowder, who also assumed the AD duties in 1965, retired from coaching two years later and saw his program to continue to achieve decent success under Bill Mallory between 1974-78. He then hired Chuck Fairbanks as head coach following the '78 season, but Fairbanks couldn't muster the same kind of success that he enjoyed in his six years as Oklahoma's coach (1967-72) before moving on to the NFL. After three seasons, he left Boulder for the fledgling USFL.

McCartney wasn't on many people's radar back in 1982, but Crowder knew of his pedigree. A surprise hire to some as he was an unknown outside of Big Ten circles, Coach "Mac" laid out a plan upon his hiring of what it would take for Colorado to return to national prominence.

- "I promise you a program based on integrity and honesty, with the top priority graduating students. That's how we're going to measure success."
- "I see Colorado as being a lot like Michigan in being able to attract the superior student-athlete. Our standards here are better than most, but that has to be looked at as an advantage."
- "You achieve what you emphasize. Until you set specific goals, you're liable to miss opportunities that come up along the way. We will know what our goals are from the start."
- "I can only predict how Colorado will play: with enthusiasm, togetherness and tenacity. Every single squad that I coach here will be team-oriented."
- "We need to enhance our reputation here (in Colorado). You make your living at home first. We want the high school players and coaches to develop loyalties to us, not out-of-state schools. We need to reach out to the communities in the state, then we'll work on other areas of the country."
- My family and I want to sink roots in this place. We took a vote on coming here, and I told them where I stood but that everybody's vote counted the same. It was 6-0. We plan on being here as long as you want us."

Those were seven of his statements made in the first few days of his tenure, and all seven came true. In fact, the above list was included in a book written about CU's national championship season (now out of print). McCartney became CU's winningest all-time coach (93-55-5), surpassing stadium namesake Fred Folsom (77-23-2) and Crowder, the man who hired him (67-49-2).

Among his many top players, Crowder landed Boulder's Anderson brothers, Dick and Bobby, now both members of the College Football Hall of Fame with Bobby's coming induction this December. McCartney recruited the most eventual All-Americans to CU, as well as the most future NFL stars. And not among those was perhaps the best player in CU history, or number 1A if White is considered one, was Darian Hagan, the quarterback who made CU's option offensive attack downright explosive. White put the Buffs on the map; Hagan and Co. took the school to the pinnacle with three straight Big Eight titles and the national crown in 1990.

Hawkins is a humble guy, and while the trio posed in a variety of formations, he has insisted that the photo that makes the cover be in proper chronological order: Crowder, McCartney and then himself. "They are THE guys," he said. "I haven't done anything yet. It's a privilege to be in the same photo with Coach Ed and Coach Mac." It was actually Hawkins' idea to share the spotlight with the men before him.

Crowder appeared on CU's media cover just once—his first season in 1963; McCartney also appeared his first year (1982), and subsequently graced the cover in 1983, 1985 and 1986.

CRADLE OF COACHES

There are three current head coaches in Division I college football who have had assistant coaching stints at the University of Colorado, and all three have enjoyed great success. Les Miles had a good run at Oklahoma State and is running the show at LSU (at Colorado between 1982-86); Gregg Brandon is the head man at Bowling Green (1999-2000) while Karl Dorrell has the reins at UCLA (two CU stints: 1992-93, 1995-97). Since Bill McCartney took over the program in 1982, CU has sent many an assistant coach into the head coaching ranks; Gerry DiNardo was the first, as after his CU stint between 1982-89 he went on to coach Vanderbilt, LSU and Indiana. Lou Tepper (CU: 1983-87), head coach at Illinois for five years and is now the head man at Edinboro (Pa.) State; Gary Barnett, who was an assistant at CU from 1984-91 was head coach at Northwestern from 1992-98 and then at CU from 1999 through 2005; Jim Caldwell, Wake Forest (at CU from 1982-84), Steve Logan, East Carolina (1985-86), Rick Neuheisel, at CU and Washington (1994), Bob Simmons, Oklahoma State (1988-94) and Ron Vanderlinden, Maryland (1983-91). All were assistants under McCartney, CU's all-time winningest head coach (93-55-5 between 1982-94). In 2003, Mike Hankwitz, served as Arizona's interim head coach for the last two months of the season; he was at CU for 10 years (1985-94). Tom Cable (1998-99) was head coach for four seasons at Idaho, as he coached under Neuheisel and Barnett. Dorrell is the only one above to coach as an assistant under both McCartney and Neuheisel. In addition, former CU player Pete Shinnick ('88) served seven seasons as head coach at Azusa Pacific and took a new position for 2006 as the head man at North Carolina-Pembroke.

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes are in their 116th season of competition with an all-time record of 650-402-36 in 1,088 games. CU currently stands 15th on the all-time win list and is 22nd in all-time winning percentage (.614; 20th for those schools with at least 50 seasons in Division I-A). Only Texas, Oklahoma and Nebraska from the Big 12 rank ahead of CU on each list, and only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado. In Boulder, the Buffs are 280-132-10 in their 82nd season on the "hilltop" (Folsom Field). Against Big 12 opposition, CU is 244-206-13 against the other 11 members of the conference, formed in 1996.

MONTHLY TAB

Dating back to 1989, Colorado is 43-16 in its last 59 September games, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU annually plays. The Buffs are 46-21-2 in their last 69 October games when conference play annually blooms, and are 48-18-1 in their last 67 November games (43-9 in November against all-comers aside from Nebraska, going 4-9-1 against NU in turkey month). CU is 5-6 in December games since 1993, including bowls, and is 2-2-1 in August games in its history.

OVERTIME

Colorado is 3-3 all-time in overtime games; the Buffs became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime:

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Nine ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas State in 2002, which came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) dropped a 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A&M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) fell to CU 19-17; in 1995, No.3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21.

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against 15 major schools. The list: 5—Air Force, Kansas; 4—San Jose State; 3—Colorado State, Minnesota, Utah State; 2—California, Iowa, Kansas State, Louisiana-Monroe, Notre Dame, Oregon State, UCLA and Wyoming. CU's longest current losing streak is to Southern Cal (5), followed by LSU and Oklahoma (both 4) and Michigan State and Texas (3 each).

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last 15 seasons, which is the ninth most nationally when it comes to trophies. But when it comes to different players who have been honored, only Miami (9), Ohio State (9), Oklahoma (9) and Nebraska (8) top the Buffs' seven. The postseason "hardware" includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Unitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu, Ray Guy, Rimington, Hendricks and ARA Sportsmanship awards (on-field player awards only—if the Draddy Award was included, the Buffs would have one more on each list). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2005 (players only; LSU and Michigan players split the 2004 Rimington Award and thus got ½ in the trophy count):

INSIDE-THE-POLL NUMBERS

Colorado has been ranked 12 times in the last 18 seasons in the Associated Press preseason football poll (just missing three of the times, No. 27 in 2001 and No. 32 in both 2003 and 2005). CU had appeared in every AP preseason ballot between 1989 and 1997, ranked in the top 15 each year, before not gaining mention in the '98 poll following a 5-6 season. The Buffs reappeared in the '99 poll at No. 15, and rose to No. 14 prior to the season-opening loss to CSU. Only CU, Florida, Florida State, Michigan and Nebraska have been ranked 15th or higher at least 11 times in these 15 years, and CU is one of only 10 teams to be ranked in as many as 12 of the last 17 preseason polls. Number of times ranked in the Associated Press Preseason Poll, 1989-2006: Florida State 18, Michigan 18, Ohio State 18, Miami, Fla. 17, Tennessee 17, Nebraska 15, Notre Dame 14, Penn State 14, Colorado 12, Alabama 12.

LONG STAY

Colorado was one of only two teams to be ranked in every poll (both the Associated Press and Coaches, be it UPI or USA Today/CNN-ESPN) from the 1989 preseason through Oct. 4, 1997 (143 AP polls, 138 coaches). Only Nebraska could also make that claim (CU was second only to the Huskers, as Nebraska had been ranked in 265 straight polls when CU hit the 143 mark). In this span, NU held the top spot 16 times and CU seven, with NU winning two national titles and Colorado one.

Associated Press Poll

MOST TOP 5 FINISHES (1989-2005): Florida St. 12, Miami 8, Nebraska 5, COLORADO 4, Ohio St. 4, Oklahoma 4, USC 4, Tennessee 4, Alabama 3, Florida 3, Notre Dame 3.

MOST TOP 10 FINISHES (1989-2005): Florida St. 12, Florida 10, Miami 9, Michigan 8, Nebraska 8, Tennessee 8, Ohio State 7, COLORADO 6, Alabama 6, Kansas St. 6, Oklahoma 5.

...AND THE RETURN

CU was out of the polls for an 11-week period once departing after 143 weeks ('97-98), but came back with a vengeance. When Colorado reappeared in both the AP and USAT/ESPN polls at No. 16 on Sept. 6, 1998 it marked the third highest debut in a poll since the AP ballot expanded to 25 teams in 1989. CU went from receiving votes to No. 16, the second highest CU has ever debuted after not being ranked in the preseason; back in 1971, the Buffs went into Baton Rouge and defeated No. 9 LSU, 31-21. CU appeared at No. 8 in the UPI-Coaches poll and at No. 12 on the AP ballot.

15 OUT OF 18

Colorado defeated at least one top 25 team for 12 consecutive seasons between 1988 and 1999, the second longest active streak in the nation behind Florida State for the latter half of the span. Colorado didn't go down easy when the streak ended in 2000, losing to five ranked teams by a combined 45 points (3, 3, 23, 14 and 2). The Buffs started a new streak in 2001, doing so with purpose as they tied the school record for most ranked teams defeated in a single season with five. CU then defeated two ranked teams in both 2002 and 2003 to make it 15 out of 16 years with at least one win over a ranked opponent, but the smaller run ended as the Buffs went 0-4 in both 2004 and 2005. CU defeated at least three ranked teams in six of those 12 years, including five twice (1990, 1995). CU has defeated at least two in nine of the last 12 years (and three ranked foes five of those seasons).

TV LAND

Colorado has now had 130 of its last 196 games dating back to 1990 broadcast nationally or regionally (66 percent). That includes 10 games in 2005, nine games in 2004, seven games in 2003, 12 in 2002, 10 games in 2001, plus 7 in 2000, 9 in both 1998 and 1999, 10 in 1996 and 1997. Since 1996, when the Big 12 began, 93 of CU's 123 games have been either nationally or regionally televised, an impressive 76 percent (the second most in the Big 12 Conference in that time frame). In addition, CU has had 18 of its last 21 non-conference games televised on a national or regional basis.

CARRYING THE TV TORCH

Colorado and Texas started carrying the torch in the 1990s when it came to scheduling regular season games against traditionally ranked opponents, games most likely to be selected for TV and making the two hits of league revenue that come with it. Here are the counts (and records) since 1990 when it comes to playing ranked non-league teams (not including bowls): Colorado 25 (13-11-1), Texas 21 (7-12-2), Nebraska 12 (8-4), Oklahoma 12 (6-6), Texas A&M 12 (4-8), Texas Tech 11 (0-11), Baylor 9 (2-7), Missouri 9 (1-8), Iowa State 8 (1-7), Kansas 6 (0-6), Oklahoma State 5 (0-5) and Kansas State 2 (1-1).

FOLSOM FIELD AGGOLADE The Sports Turf Management Association named Folsom Field as its 2002 "Football Field of the Year," the first time CU has ever earned this prestigious award. Jason DePaepe, CU's athletic turf manager, officially accepted the award in San Antonio. Those who judge the competition were impressed with DePaepe and his staff's aggressive maintenance program, as the field is easily one of the best in college football, if not all sports.

BUFF BLEMISHES

Colorado has a history of inflicting blemishes on some of the teams who have traditionally fared well at home. The top five home records last decade (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996, and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s. The Buffs also snapped the Aggies 22-game home winning streak—started late in 1996, after losses to CU then Texas Tech. And in 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-game home winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams, and was only the second KSU home loss in a 29 game span.

18 OF 21

The Buffs now have 18 winning (regular) seasons in the last 21 years, including 2005, matched only by a handful of schools across the nation. The exceptions came in 1997, 2000 and 2003; in 1986, CU was 6-5 in the regular season but finished 6-6 after losing to Baylor in the Bluebonnet Bowl. CU has been invited to bowls in 17 of the previous 21 seasons, staying home in only 1987, 1997, 2000 and 2003.

OFFENSE & DEFENSE

Through the years, there are always a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball. DT John Guydon was the latest to do so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snaps at strong safety) against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA. In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

QUARTERBACK HISTORY LESSON

The three-way competition for the starting quarterback job this year was only the fifth real battle in the last 15 years at Colorado. The last time had been in 2003, when walk-on Joel Klatt earned the nod; in 2000, the competition between Zac Colvin and Bobby Pesavento raged from the start of spring ball to the final week of August camp. Colvin was named the opening game starter but four weeks into the season, freshman Craig Ochs came in during the second quarter of the Kansas State game and did not relinquish the role the remainder of the season. In 1998, the first real battle in six years, juniors Mike Moschetti and Jeremy Weisinger and sophomore Adam Bledsoe duked it out for the starting role. Moschetti won the job and Weisinger subsequently transferred to Texas A & M, where he became a free safety. Moschetti was the first junior college transfer to start a game at quarterback for Colorado since 1976, when Jeff Austin started the first three games of the year. Back in 1992, it was a four-way battle between a hero off the bench in junior Vance Joseph, an unknown sophomore named Kordell Stewart, the younger brother of a Heisman winner, Koy Detmer, and a transfer from Illinois, Duke Tobin. Stewart emerged as the winner and held the reins for three years, with Detmer the heir in 1995. John Hessler, of course, subbed for an injured Detmer most of that season and assumed control his senior year (1997). Darian Hagan had piloted the ship from 1989-91.

AND MORE—In looking back at CU history, the Buffs have usually had a capable backup quarterback that became a household name. As far back as 1971, when 5-foot-7 Joe Duenas subbed for an injured Ken Johnson to lead CU to a 56-13 win over Wyoming in the second game of the season, Colorado second-team signal callers have made names for themselves. Two years later, David Williams and Clyde Crutchmer duelled for starting honors; in 1976, Austin replaced Jeff Knapple on occasion after Knapple wrestled the starting job away from him; in 1979, Charlie Davis and Bill Solomon battled back and forth; in the early 1980s, Steve Vogel and Randy Essington alternated as starters for three years, with Vogel emerging as CU's all-time passing leader at the time. In the last 1980s, there was the run of Sal Aunese replacing Mark Hatcher, Hagan replacing Aunese, Charles Johnson and Joseph both subbing for an injured Hagan on occasion; Stewart replacing Hagan, and he himself being replaced by Detmer and Tobin due to injuries; and of course, Hessler subbing for Detmer after Detmer replaced Stewart. Perhaps the best example of this came in 2001, when Bobby Pesavento took over the second half of the year for an injured Craig Ochs, and he helped lead the Buffs to their first Big 12 Conference title. That run included Pesavento steering the Buffs to wins over No. 2 Nebraska and No. 3 Texas. And in 2002, Robert Hodge has had to replace Ochs, after Ochs suffered the third concussion of his CU career and eventually left the team.

THE AVERAGE BUFF

The 103 players on the 2006 opening week roster (active and inactive, as of August 28) totaled 7,545 inches in height and weighed 23,415 collective pounds, or an average of 6-1¼, 227 pounds per player, slightly smaller but heavier than the 2005 average of 6-3, 218, though in line with other figures this decade: 6-2, 223 in 2004; 6-2¼, 226 in 2003; 6-2¼, 227 in 2002; and 6-2, 227 in both 2000 and 2001). The 7,545 inches translate roughly into 629 feet or 210 yards, the distance of the par-three No. 3 hole at Royal St. George's in England, while the weight of 23,415 pounds exceeds by 415 pounds the amount allowed to be trucked on most roads in the northeastern United States. Here's a look at position-by-position averages (LW—denotes lettermen):

Position	Players	LW	Height	Weight	Position	Players	LW	Height	Weight
Cornerbacks	10	5	5-11	186	Quarterbacks	4	2	6-2	208
Defensive Ends	5	4	6-3	241	Safeties	7	5	6-0	194
Defensive Tackles	7	2	6-3	276	Special Teams Snappers	1	0	6-1	235
Fullbacks	3	0	5-11	233	Tailbacks	6	2	5-10	202
Inside Linebackers	10	4	6-1	235	Tight Ends	9	1	6-5	241
Kickers/Punters	5	2	6-0	193	Wide Receivers	15	7	6-0	187
Offensive Linemen	16	7	6-3	293	Team	103	45	6-1¼	227
Outside Linebackers	5	4	6-2	220

The most popular letter to begin surnames is the letter B (15), followed by S (14) and H (10); five last names are similar, but none are brothers (Adams, Brown, Jones, Sanders, Washington). There is no "popular" first name (there are three Daniel's); unique ones include Cha'pelle, Dusty, Jalil, Samson, Taj and Thaddaeus.

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado gets most of its players from primarily three states: Colorado, California and Texas (74 percent of the entire roster—76 of 103 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffs: Colorado 31, California 31, Texas 14, Hawai'i 4, Florida 2, Iowa 2, Louisiana 2, Michigan 2, Minnesota 2, Nebraska 2, Oklahoma 2, Alabama 1, Arizona 1, Idaho 1, Illinois 1, Kentucky 1, Missouri 1, New York 1, Tennessee 1 and Washington 1. That's 20 states total that produced the make-up of this year's team.

THREE SENIORS NAMED 2006 CAPTAINS

Dan Hawkins announced at the conclusion of fall camp that three seniors would serve as team captains for the 2006 season: PK Mason Crosby, OG Brian Daniels and ILB Thaddaeus Washington. "They are obviously very good players and they have the respect of the team," Hawkins said. "They lead by example in the classroom, on the field and in the weight room. The coach can set the tone, but those guys have to carry things out in the trenches."

➤ CROSBY is the first placekicker and just the second solely special teams performer to be named a CU team captain, preceded only by another special teams All-American, punter Barry Helton in 1987. Crosby, a two-time All-Big 12 performer and a consensus All-American in 2005, opted to stay at CU for his senior year instead of declaring for the NFL draft and is in position to exit with almost every major scoring record in school history. The '05 Lou Groza Award runner-up also could see his name join the others on the façade at Folsom Field's press box if he earns a third all-conference accolade.

➤ DANIELS, a fourth-year senior from Evergreen (Mullen High School), set a school record in 2003 when he made nine starts, the most-ever by a true freshman offensive lineman in CU history. He is bidding to become just the fourth offensive lineman in school annals to start for four seasons; he would join OT Pat Ryan (1984-87), OG Joe Garten (1987-90) and OT Justin Bates (1999-2002).

➤ WASHINGTON, a fifth-year senior from Marrero, La., has 231 career tackles, and like many before him who learned under the guidance of another former CU captain, linebacker coach Brian Cabral, he has his sights set on passing his coach's career tackle total (Cabral had 297 for CU between 1975-78). He is also bidding to become the first linebacker to lead the Buffaloes in tackles in back-to-back seasons since 1993-94, when Butkus Award runner-up Ted Johnson accomplished the feat.
